WARNING!

To the Housewives of Norwich: You will surely be

ROBBED

This summer of a vast amount of time and strength, if you persist in ironing in the old-fashioned way, the

is yours for less than half the cost of an electric iron, and in five times cheaper to iron with, in fact the cheapest known method. A big bargain at $1.99 but to get them quickly into the hands of the people we are making a special introduction price, for a limited time, of only $1.50, complete with necessary tubing. Don't forget that the world's best cooking stove is the Gas & Electrical Dep't.

Sanitary Plumbing

A copy into an up-to-date bathroom is only less retarding than the bath itself. During the summer you will find the more modern the bath the better for comfort. I will show you samples and plans of the porcelain, and other tubs and give you estimates for the work of putting them in in the best manner from a sanitary standpoint—and guarantee the entire job.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. George W. Kies.

About 6 o'clock Thursday morning Ellen Corbetta Allen, wife of George W. Kies, passed away at her late home, No. 13 Laurel Hill avenue. Her health had been poor for the last eight years, owing to a shock which she suffered, and for the last two months she failed rapidly.

She was the daughter of Jabez A. Allen and Sarah Corey Bacon Allen and was born in Killingly about 55 years ago. She was united in marriage with George W. Kies in this city on July 26, 1852, and had lived in Norwich since her marriage. Mr. Kies is also a native of Killingly and came to this city in 1859. Mr. Kies was a member of the King's Daughters, to which she belonged for a number of years, and was also a member of the Broadway Congregational church. She was of a very genial disposition and always found pleasure in doing good.

Mrs. Kies inherited the fine traits of her New England ancestry and took for her guide through life her religious faith. She had a host of friends among the old residents of this city who admired and respected her. She was devoted to her husband, was a kind mother and a helpful and loving friend. All who knew her speak of her in the highest terms and extend their deep sympathy to those who mourn their great loss.

Mrs. Kies is survived by her husband, George W. Kies, who is a well known shoe dealer of this city, and an only son, George A. Kies, a well known optician and teacher of music. The deceased is the last of a family of four, two brothers and two sisters.

$52,000 of Thermos Money Paid in

Treasurer Reported to Directors Meeting—Final Call Will Be Issued—Several New Contracts Made—Total Contracts of $90,155 Now Awarded.

A meeting of the directors of the Norwich Industrial Improvement corporation was held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Thames National bank. Eight directors were present, as was also William B. Walker, president of the American Thermos Bottle company, consisting of Allen L. Brown, W. W. Lang and S. B. Palmer, who will confer with the selectmen. Walter W. Lang was delegated to obtain water service for the factory.

The following additional contracts were approved: A. Torrance for double glazing sash as per estimate of H. B. Foster & Son, $1,171; Salem Elevator company, $1,145; J. J. Shugrue, plumbing, $2,025; Rockwood Sprinkler company, $2,484.36. The total contracts now awarded amount to $90,155.55, of which the local company will pay $60,000. The heating and landscape work and tank for fire protection will add about $30,000 to the total cost.

The matter of having the town accept a highway through the property was left to the real estate committee, consisting of Allen L. Brown, W. W. Lang and S. B. Palmer, who will confer with the selectmen. Walter W. Lang was delegated to obtain water service for the factory.

The August bill of Contractor Torrance amounting to $20,841.81, was referred to the architects for approval and subject to their approval the directors of the Norwich Industrial Improvement corporation voted to pay the sum of $10,841.81 and Mr. Walker agreed to pay $10,000 of the amount, as being incurred upon the addition to the factory. With this is not enough money in the treasury of the local company to meet their share of the payment. Treasurer Hewitt has had assurances from several subscribers who have not yet paid the second installment that the balance would be forthcoming by the 10th, which is the date of payment.
